International Scholarships Terms and Conditions

2024/25

University of Lincoln International Scholarships Terms and Conditions – 2024/25

The terms and conditions set out below relate to the awarding of University of Lincoln International Scholarships in respect of the 2024/25 academic year.

For the purposes of this document, the following definitions shall apply:

Definition of 'Student': An Schootseastipe-paying student.

Definition of 'Programme of Study':

A University of Lincoln;

Undergraduate Programme Postgraduate Taught Programme

Definition of 'Country or Regional Scholarships':

The following University of Lincoln International Scholarships we72 Tc[or)]TJETQ0.000008874 0 595.5 841.98 reWBT/F6 10

General Terms and Conditions

Global Undergraduate Scholarship

- 3.1. The Global Undergraduate Scholarship is valued at £2,000 and will be applied as a tuition fee discount for each fee-paying year of study on an Undergraduate Programme.
- 3.2. To be eligible to receive the Global Undergraduate Scholarship, Students must have submitted their application to study at the University of Lincoln prior to the deadline of Saturday 1 June, 2024.

Global Postgraduate Scholarship

- 4.1. The Global Postgraduate Scholarship is valued at £1,000 and will be applied as a tuition fee discount.
- 4.2. To be eligible to receive the Global Postgraduate Scholarship, Students must have an equivalent qualification that leads to postgraduate study) from a recognised institution, and have obtained a minimum of a 2:2 classification (or an equivalent).
- 4.3. Students must have an offer of a place on a postgraduate taught programme (such as an MA or MSc) to be programme will not be eligible to receive the scholarship.
- 4.4. Students who are studying a two-year Postgraduate Taught Programme will only be eligible to receive the Global Postgraduate Scholarship during the first year of their studies.

Africa Scholarship

- 5.1. The Africa Scholarship is valued at £3,000 and will be applied as a tuition fee discount against the cost of a Postgraduate Taught Programme.
- 5.2. To be eligible to receive the Africa Scholarship, Students must be a national of or have permanent residence, in Africa (excluding Egypt) at the time of applying to the University. Students must also have that leads to postgraduate study) from a recognised institution, and have obtained a minimum of a 2:1 classification (or an equivalent).

Nigeria Scholarship

- 6.1 Depending on the undergraduate degree classification (or an equivalent qualification that leads to postgraduate study), the Nigeria Scholarship is valued at £5,000 or £4,000 and will be applied as a tuition fee discount against the cost of a Postgraduate Taught Programme
- 6.2 To be eligible to receive the Nigeria Scholarship, Students must be a national of, or have permanent residence, in Nigeria at the time of applying to the University.
- 6.3 To receive a £5,000 scholarship students must have c qualification that leads to postgraduate study) from a recognised institution and have obtained a minimum of a 2:1 classification (or an equivalent)
- 6.4 To receive a £4,000 scholarship students must have c

have permanent residence in one of the following countries at the time of applying to the University; Brunei, Cambodia, East Timor, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines,

- 13.5. In addition to submitting a University of Lincoln International Scholarship Application form, Students must also meet the academic requirements set out below.
 - 13.5.1 Students intending to join an Undergraduat International Scholarship Application